

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
Northern District of California

BARBARA HAYSOM

No. C 11-04626 MEJ

Plaintiff(s),

v.

ORDER DIRECTING PARTIES TO FILE CONSENT/DECLINATION FORM

ROBERT MCGUINESS

Defendant(s).

Pending before the Court is Defendants' motion to dismiss. Upon review of the record in this action, the Court notes that the parties have not filed written consents to magistrate judge jurisdiction. This civil case was randomly assigned to the undersigned magistrate judge for all purposes including trial. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), the magistrate judges of this district court are designated to conduct any and all proceedings in a civil case, including trial and entry of final judgment, upon the consent of the parties. An appeal from a judgment entered by a magistrate judge may be taken directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in the same manner as an appeal from any other judgment of a district court.

You have the right to have your case assigned to a United States District Judge for trial and disposition. Accordingly, the parties shall inform the Court whether they consent to magistrate judge jurisdiction or request reassignment to a United States District Judge for trial. A copy of both the consent and declination forms may be obtained from the Northern District of California's website at <http://www.cand.uscourts.gov/>. From the homepage, choose "Forms" and then "Civil Forms." The parties shall inform the Court of their decision by November 1, 2011.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: October 20, 2011
